ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.
(FOR THE COUNTRY)
Is published regularly on MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS and FRIDAYS, at SIX DOLLARS PER ANNUM—payable in advance.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING:
One square, of eight lines, one dollar, for the first insertion and twenty-five cents for each subsequent one. Liberal terms made for advertising notices, exceeding five lines, will be charged for.
All communications, of a personal character, will be charged for at advertisement rates.
All communications must be accompanied by the names of the authors, and rejected communications cannot be returned.

HYPOCRISY.—The Radical leaders are guilty of two pretences that are so flagrant as to be ludicrous. They affect to consider President Johnson an "audacious and dangerous usurper," in order that they may have a pretext for building up their power, while he, poor man, has scarcely the shadow of power left. Stripped of his prerogatives, impeached, and at the mercy of Congress, he cannot move a step without their permission, and yet he is held up as a dangerous public enemy!

In the same hypocritical manner the Radicals exclaim, "Lo! the poor negro. See how he is persecuted and maltreated in the South. He is not permitted to register or vote and rebels are carrying everything against him with a high hand." This is pretty well shown up by the Hartford Times, which says:

"The aforesaid 'niggers' not only 'registered and voted,' but voted, in numerous cases, many times over; and were also allowed to go in force and vote in other States, so as to be 'nearly,' as they express it, for like favors received from 'dem niggers.' In this proceeding they are understood to have had the countenance, and doubtless the aid, of the interesting organization called the Freedmen's Bureau—an institution which takes twenty or thirty millions of the taxes of the northern people to keep a vast horde of 'liberated' and idle negroes in food and clothing, and under the right management to make them 'vote right.'"

MARRIED WOMEN AND MAIDS.—The Imperial Review is troubled with the question whether married women should dance, and it expresses its opinion in a long article, from which we make an extract. It says:

"There is something almost unseemly in the spectacle of a half dozen young married women walking off with some of the best partners in the room, while a row of girls are sitting neglected against the wall. Neither ignorance nor thoughtlessness can be pleaded as an excuse.—Women thoroughly know women, whatever else they may know; and there is not one of them that is not vividly conscious of what heart burning it causes to a poor girl to hear the music and watch the many twinkling feet of a ball-room, and play the almost ingenuitous part of a passive spectator. Grown-up women clutching at all the toys or sweatmeats of a Christmas tree at a juvenile party, would not be a more unnatural spectacle. Grown-up men eager to win the stakes at a round game got up for lads home for the holidays, would not be more cruel or inhuman. We are constrained to plead for tenderness and consideration on the part of young women who are married towards young women who are not married.—Might not Sidney's words, as he handed the draught of water to the dying soldier at Lutten, be profitably remembered? 'Thy need is greater than mine.'"

THE FORTUNES OF OUR PRESIDENTS.—Some one has collected information in regard to the fortunes left by the dead and the living ex-presidents. We learn that Jefferson died poor.—Indeed, if Congress had not purchased his library, giving him five times its value, he would with difficulty have kept the wolf from his door. Madison saved his money, and was comparatively rich. To add to his fortune, however, or rather that of his widow, Congress purchased his manuscript papers, and paid $30,000 for them. James Monroe, the sixth President of the United States, died so poor that his remains found a resting place through the charity of his friends. They remain in a cemetery, but no announcement marks the spot where they repose. John Quincy Adams left some $50,000, the result of industry, prudence and inheritance. He was a man of method and economy. Martin Van Buren died rich. Throughout his life he studiously looked out for his own interest. James K. Polk left about $150,000, $50,000 of which was saved from his Presidency of four years. John Tyler left $50,000. Before he was President he was a bankrupt. In office he was abandoned his means, and then married a rich wife. Zachary Taylor left $100,000. Millard Fillmore is a wealthy man. Franklin Pierce saved $50,000 from his term of service. James Buchanan, who is a bachelor, and saves all he gets, is estimated to be worth at least $200,000.

A preacher was travelling in one of the back settlements, and stopped at a cabin where an old lady received him very kindly. After setting provisions before him, she began to question him in the following way:

"Stranger, where would you be from?"

"Madam, I reside in Shelby county, Ky."

"Well, stranger, hope no offence, but what would you be doing up here?"

"Madam, I am searching for the lost sheep of the tribe of Israel."

"John, John!" shouted the old woman, "come ride here this minute; here's a stranger all the way from Shelby county, Ky., a hunting stock, and I'll just bet my life that tangle-haired old black ram that's been in our lot all last week, is one of his."

A REMARKABLE OYSTER.—A few days since a prominent gentleman residing in one of the lower counties, went on board an oyster boat lying at one of the landings on York river, and bought a few of the "bivalves" in the shell, and he proceeded to open for himself. Attached to and imbedded in the shell of one of them he encountered a metallic substance. This oyster he carried home, and there proceeded to break it to pieces with a hammer. Picture his astonishment when he found that it contained a French gold coin, known as a Louis d'or, of the value of about fourteen dollars, bearing date 1573. It is probable that it was lost overboard from the French fleet during the siege of Yorktown.—Rich. Eng.

Telegraphic communication can now be had directly with Havana. The wires have been laid from the coast to the city of Havana, and carried up to the palace of the captain general, by whom and Mayor Hoffman, of New York, congratulatory telegrams have been exchanged.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR GAPES AND OTHER DISEASES IN CHICKENS AND TURKEYS.
A Certain Preventive of Chicken Cholera.
Will prevent disease in all kinds of fowl, and promote an increase of fat. Read the following:
Jefferson, Frederick co., Md.,
July 22d, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gents:—The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poulterers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your Poulterers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry.
Respectfully,
A. SPENCER.

E. S. FLEMING.

MEDICAL.
BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.
ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY.
THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Stricture, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Incontinence, Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dizziness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—severe and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN,
Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may sail with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, beware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily cured.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost, sooner by those falling into improper habits than the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes Weakened, Physical and Mental Functions are Weakened, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, uniting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTAL.
The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN,
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulging in evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from a prosperous and enjoyable life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to provide comfortable happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.
